

CHELSEI LAMBERTON, MA

lambcj@udel.edu · (713) 377-4702 · Newark, DE

EDUCATION

2020 – PRESENT (EXPECTED 2025)

PH.D. IN CRIMINOLOGY, University of Delaware, Newark, DE
James A. Inciardi Fellowship Award

2018 – 2020

M.A. IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE & CRIMINOLOGY, Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, TX
Thesis Title: A Legal Analysis of Health Care for Incarcerated Women in the United States

2014 – 2018

B.S. IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND ENGLISH, Sam Houston State University

Research interests: Conditions of confinement and consequences of incarceration, unique needs of women involved in the criminal justice system, feminist criminology, and prison reform/abolition

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

SUMMER 2022-ONGOING

RESEARCH ASSISTANT, University of Delaware

Assisting multiple projects in the Center for Drug and Health Studies, including the Prison Reform & Innovation Network (PRIN), funded by Urban Institute, and the Rape Prevention Evaluation (RPE) project, funded by the state of Delaware. PRIN is a participatory action research project involving ethnographic and mixed methodology in a Delaware state prison. RPE involves gathering state-level data on risk factors for gender-based and sexual violence and disseminating that data to state practitioners and providers.

SUMMER 2020-ONGOING

RESEARCH ASSISTANT, University of Delaware

Worked with the Center for the Study and Prevention of Gender-Based Violence to create a database on the prevalence and outcomes of professional and collegiate athletes committing gender-based violence, intimate partner violence, and/or sexual assault.

SUMMER 2018

RESEARCH & ASSESSMENT SPECIALIST, Florida State University

Conducted interviews inside of correctional facilities with incarcerated individuals in Texas for the Safe Streets and Second Chances Reentry Project: Five Key Models of Reentry

SUMMER 2018

INTERVIEWER, Sam Houston State University

Interviewed correctional officers inside of correctional facilities for the Correctional Officer Stress Project

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

PUBLICATIONS

Lamberton, C., & Vaughn, M.S. (2022). Correctional medical care for female prisoners: Legal issues surrounding inadequate treatment of chronic and/or preexisting health conditions. The Prison Journal, 102(4), 493-514.

Lamberton, C. (2017). Foucault's panopticism revisited: Effects on panoptic practices in modern prisons. The Measure: A Journal of Undergraduate Research in the Humanities and Social Sciences, 1, 45- 55. Available: <https://journals.tdl.org/measure/index.php/measure/issue/view/1>

CONFERENCE EXPERIENCE

Lamberton, C. (2021). Correctional Medical Care for Female Prisoners: Legal Issues Surrounding Inadequate Treatment of Chronic and/or Preexisting Health Conditions. Roundtable discussion at the American Society of Criminology meeting, held in Chicago, Illinois.

Lamberton, C. (2019). The relationship between parental incarceration and juvenile delinquency. Poster presented at the American Society of Criminology meeting, held in San Francisco, CA.

Lamberton, C. (2018). An overview of the accessibility of menstrual hygiene products for incarcerated women. Poster Presented at the SHSU Undergraduate Research Symposium, held in Huntsville, TX. Winner of Best Poster for Graduating Senior.

ORGANIZATIONS AND PROFESSIONAL AFFILITATIONS

- American Society of Criminology (ASC)
- Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (ACJS)
- Academic Consortium of Criminal Justice Health (ACCJH)
- Division on Women and Crime (ASC)
- Graduate Student Council, University of Delaware (Professional Development Committee Chair Spring 2021-Fall 2021)